MISSIONARY MOMENT

Sheryl Uyeda
Papau, New Guinea

Over the past 6 weeks, Sheryl traveled widely, visiting loved ones, and enjoyed a meaningful spiritual retreat while walking part of the Camino de Santiago. The season was filled with visits across the U.S. and Europe, time with friends, moments of rest and reflection, and opportunities to share with supportive communities. She is now preparing to return to PNG, grateful for the relationships, renewal, and encouragement this journey provided.

Please pray for safe travels back to PNG amid flight delays, for abundant rain as the severe drought is now limiting hospital operations, for wisdom and sustainability as I continue a reduced 60% clinical schedule, and for God's kingdom to advance in PNG and around the world.

"In support of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, I've begun making Knitted Knockers—soft, comfortable, hand-knit prosthetics for mastectomy patients at Kudjip Hospital in PNG. If you'd like to support the effort, email me at suyeda3@gmail.com or visit knittedknockers.org online for more information. Lukim yu behain (see you later)!"
