MISSIONARY MOMENT

Newsletter highlights from Randy & Jill Vernon

The Vernons share updates from their ministry work in Samarkand, Uzbekistan. They describe ongoing cultural and community engagement, including welcoming a Singaporean staff family—Josiah, Ra, and Tricia Tan—and their 2 boys. The Tans are contributing to university work, ministry outreach, and local relationship-building. There is continued collaboration among international staff and the growing involvement of Singaporean partners.

Randy and Jill report increased participation from Singaporeans in their work, including upcoming US internships for SUTD students. They describe the SUTD's financial crisis caused by the downturn in the oil industry and its impact on staff morale, stability, and spiritual health. Their ministry has been supporting faculty and administrators through this difficult period.

They also hosted 7 American university students for a summer internship, involving ministry activities, cultural experiences, and engagement with local students—all of whom stayed in their home.

Randy and Jill extend their thanks for continued interest and support.
