

As God – Part 2

How should I treat other people?

Treat others the way God has treated you.

We are to be imitators of God

Love as God has loved us

Forgive as God has forgiven us

Accept others as Christ has accepted us _____ yourself as Christ _____ Himself

(Philippians 2:5–8) Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: {6} Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, {7} but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. {8} And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!

(Mark 10:43–44) Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, {44} and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all.

_____ as God _____

(John 3:16) “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

(Romans 8:32) He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

(Galatians 6:10) Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

(2 Corinthians 9:7–8) Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. {8} And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

(Acts 4:34–35) There were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales {35} and put it at the apostles’ feet, and it was distributed to anyone as he had need.

Be _____ as God as _____ (Luke 6:36) Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

(Matthew 5:48) Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

(Romans 5:10) For if, when we were God’s enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

Be _____ because He is _____

(1 Peter 1:14–16) As obedient children, do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance. {15} But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; {16} for it is written: “Be holy, because I am holy.”

_____ as the Son of Man came to _____ (Mark 10:45) For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

(John 13:1–17) It was just before the Passover Feast. Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he now showed them the full extent of his love. {2} The evening meal was being served, and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus. {3} Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; {4} so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. {5} After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples’ feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him. {6} He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?” {7} Jesus replied, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.” {8} “No,” said Peter, “you shall never wash my feet.” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.” {9} “Then, Lord,” Simon Peter replied, “not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!” {10} Jesus answered, “A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet; his whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you.” {11} For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean. {12} When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. {13} “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am. {14} Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. {15} I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. {16} I tell you the truth, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. {17} Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

_____ as Christ _____

(Hebrews 12:3) Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

(1 Peter 2:21) To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

(1 Peter 2:22–23) “He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.” {23} When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly.

Be _____ as the Father and Son are _____ (John 17:21) that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

Speak _____ as God speaks _____

(Ephesians 4:25) Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbor, for we are all members of one body.

(James 5:12) Above all, my brothers, do not swear—not by heaven or by earth or by anything else. Let your “Yes” be yes, and your “No,” no, or you will be condemned.

(Titus 1:2) a faith and knowledge resting on the hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised before the beginning of time,

(John 17:17) Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth.

Walk in the _____ as He is in the _____ (1 John 1:7) But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.

Be _____ as God is _____ (Luke 6:35) But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked.

Love your _____ as Christ loves the _____ (Ephesians 5:25) Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her

The _____ that makes this possible

(2 Peter 1:3–4) His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. {4} Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

(Galatians 2:20) I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

The _____, the _____, and the _____

The Great _____

Treat _____ the way God has treated _____
