Redeemer Welcomes new Children's Ministry Director, Miss Abigail Dingman

Abigail grew up going to Port City Faith Assembly of God Church in Oswego, NY. She volunteered and taught in the Nursery and Children's Church alongside her mom, who was the Children's Ministry Director there for 15 years.

Abigail attended Houghton University, a liberal arts and science Christian university in Canandaigua, NY, where she double-majored in Theology with a concentration in Youth Ministry, as well as Equine Facility Management; and double-minored in Bible and Equine Assistant Therapy. She is also currently a horse trainer and riding instructor at Burnt Feather Farms in Mexico, NY, and owns 3 of her own horses that she competes with.

Abigail's vision for the children's ministry at Redeemer Covenant Church is to build a welcoming and inviting community of children; a place where they can, alongside their friends, learn and grow in their walk with Jesus. A typical Sunday would consist of learning the fundamentals of being a Christian, Bible stories and lessons, prayer, crafts and games.

We are extremely excited to bring Abigail on board and look forward to seeing what God has in store for Redeemer Covenant Church!
