MISSIONARY MOMENT

*Highlights from Sheryl Uyeda,
Missionary in Papua, New Guinea*

Celebrated my parents' 50th anniversary with a trip to Japan. Hiroshima was the most meaningful as we traced my family's roots, walked ancestral land, and explored terraced cemeteries in search of relatives.

Returned to Kudjip and immediately operated on a woman with intestinal perforation, discovering five large worms in her abdomen! We had a busy stretch of gallbladder surgeries and an intense run of colorectal cancer cases.

Enjoying life with my cat, Kira. Continuing monthly preaching, including a recent visit to TeaKofi church with our newest missionary family from Austria.

PRAISES:

- Refreshing doctors' retreat.
- Wonderful Japan trip.
- Many volunteers & learners supporting the hospital.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

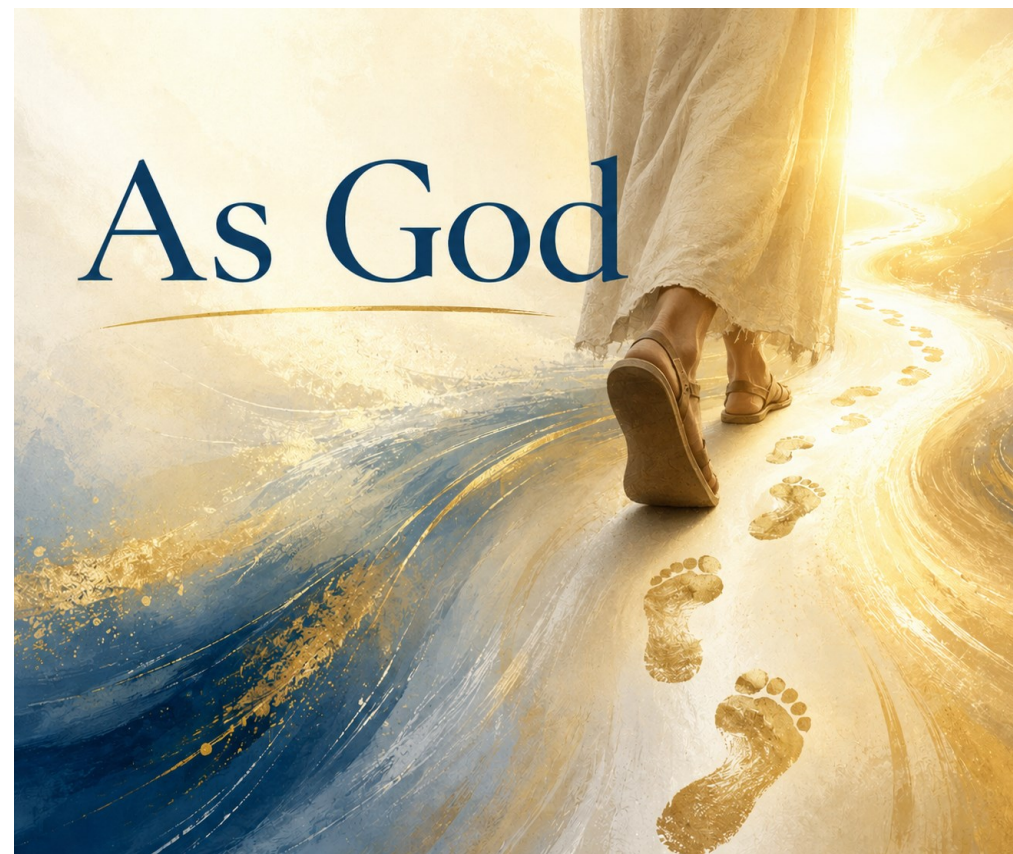

- Balance in work, rest, and ministry.
- Smooth transitions for new missionaries and trainees.
- For our patients to know God's love and healing power.
